George Klein

George Klein first met Elvis Presley in 1948 during a high school music class at Humes High School in Memphis, Tenn. Klein and Elvis became close friends, sharing life's important moments. Elvis served as Klein's best man on his wedding day, and Klein was one of 14 guests at Elvis' wedding to Priscilla Presley and later served as a pallbearer at Elvis' funeral. Klein was selected by Priscilla to accept Elvis' award for entry into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame.

During his extensive career in the entertainment industry, Klein appeared in eight Elvis movies, including "Finding Graceland" and "Viva Las Vegas." Klein served as narrator in the Elvis tribute video, "Elvis Center Stage," and was the producer and host of the nationally syndicated television special, "Elvis Memories."

The voice of George Klein has been a part of Memphis radio for more than 45 years. Klein currently hosts the "George Klein Show," broadcast live from Graceland on Elvis Radio/Sirius Satellite 13, and also hosts the daily "Memphis Sounds" television show on WYPL-TV.

Most recently, Klein has teamed up with the Reese's® brand to celebrate the launch of Reese's Elvis Cups and pay tribute to the life and legacy of his friend, Elvis Presley.
