

2009 PURINA CAT CHOW CONNECTED FOR THE CAUSE CAMPAIGN

Dr. Karen Sueda

Dr. Sueda is a graduate of the University of California, Davis Veterinary School and went on to complete a one-year internship at the Veterinary Medical and Surgical Group in Ventura, Calif. She returned to UC Davis and completed a three-year residency in Clinical Animal Behavior in 2005. Dr. Sueda taught veterinary students and served as a UC Davis behavior clinician for an additional year before founding the behavior service at VCA West Los Angeles Animal Hospital.

In 2007, Dr. Sueda became one of only 48 Diplomates of the American College of Veterinary Behaviorists in the world. She currently sees both in-office and house call behavior cases throughout southern California.

Dr. Sueda's special interests include feline behavior, anxiety-related disorders and the human-animal bond. She was born and raised in Hawaii where her family continues to reside.

Dr. Sueda lives in Los Angeles and is proud to work with Purina® Cat Chow® to share her expert views on the unique relationship between cats and their owners.

###